1. On 3 July 1961 the Guardia Civil at La Junquera accidentally found a large supply of weapons in the car driven by the following two persons:

2nd Herbert ALDOUBY
 DPOB 16 July 31, Cernowitz, Rumania; son of Paul and Amy; married; journalist; resides 235 West 103rd Street (New York City) and 1100 Yehuda Halevi (Tel Aviv, Israel).

Jacques Simon THIMSON
 DPOB 31 January 31, Paris, France; son of Henri and Henriette (SIO); single; decorator; resides 4r. L'Agent Sarre 135, Colombes (Seine), France.

Both persons were arrested and taken to Barcelona, where they were held incommunicado while the documents which they carried with them were studied. It appeared from the notes and maps that the two individuals were part of a preparatory mission which eventually meant to kidnap the ex-Belgian Marxist leader, Degrelle, from his present home near Seville. On 8 July they were turned over to the military authorities and charged only with "illicit tendencies and contraband of weapons."

2. Forwarded herewith are photographs of the two individuals plus photographs of the arsenal they carried and the documents, maps, and sketches which they had with them.
